Royal Thai Army ran a short film contest for students. They were required to produce 90-seconds-long films to join the contest. This year, the topic of contest was “Kingology for Sustainable Development.” Fourth-year Television and Broadcasting Students of SSRU submitted their work, “Lengthen the Breath,” to the contest and earned the first runner-up award.

On September, 15, 2018, Mr. Akarapong Nantasen, the team leader, and other team members, Apiwat Asata, Wasan Reungngan, and Kitdanai Tiengtammo, went to Bangkok Art and Culture Centre to received their awards, trophy, and scholarship. Lect. Pitimanus Bunlue was the advisor of this team during their film production.
